

Call for Proposals: Neutral Ground Artist Run Centre Main Gallery
Exhibition season: 2020 - 2021
APPLICATION DEADLINE: May 15th, 2019

The Main Gallery:

Neutral Ground's Main Gallery is a white cube space, measuring approximately 900 sq. feet. The gallery is highly visible, and fully accessible, located on the ground level of a busy, pedestrian only street in downtown Regina.

The Main Gallery includes adjustable lighting, with 12' high white walls reinforced with ¾" plywood. (See floor-plan for more details HERE). The gallery is equipped with various technical resources including digital projectors, media players, flat-screen TV monitors, and a 6-speaker sound system.

Proposals will be considered for solo, 2-person, and group exhibitions. Curatorial proposals are also encouraged. Artists exhibiting in the Main Gallery will be paid in accordance with the CARFAC fee schedule for level 1 gallery exhibitions and additionally for the presentation of an artist talk, performance, or workshop. Additional budget is available for: per diem; artist travel (up to regional limits); accommodations (sometimes billeted); shipping of artworks (one way).

Neutral Ground offers installation assistance, documentation, and insurance for art works while on-site. Exhibitions are promoted through printed invitations, electronic newsletters, advertisements, gallery tours, documentation, public reception, school tours, websites, and social media.
